

Lack of Greenspace in Selma

Selma has limited safe green spaces, with few parks and shaded areas.

Many neighborhoods lack clean, well-maintained places to be outdoors.

This shortage affects physical health, mental well-being, and quality of life.

What Can We Do?

Selma needs more safe green spaces, which we can create by investing in parks, planting trees, and reclaiming unused land.

